

Unsere
Stadt

City tax in Tübingen from 2026

The city of Tübingen will introduce a city tax of Euro 2 per night per adult guest starting on January 1, 2026. This tax is charged in addition to the accommodation price and is collected directly by your accommodation provider.

By paying this fee, you support the tourism infrastructure and city marketing in Tübingen – helping to make your stay and that of future guests even more enjoyable.

How much is the city tax?

The tax amounts to Euro 2 per night per adult (aged 18 and over). It is a municipal levy and is independent of the room rate. The tax applies to all paid overnight stays in accommodation establishments in Tübingen.

What is exempt from paying the tax?

The following are exempt from the city tax:

- Children and young people under the age of 18
- Stays in hospitals, rehabilitation clinics, retirement and nursing homes, and hospices
- Long-term stays in the same accommodation from the 61st consecutive night onward without interruption
- Stays that establish residence under registration law (e.g., permanent rental as a residence).

If you are unsure whether an exemption applies to your stay, please contact the reception desk.

What will the money be used for?

The City Council of Tübingen has decided to allocate the revenue to Tourismus und Stadtmarketing Tübingen GmbH (Tübingen Tourism and City Marketing Ltd.) for tourist information services, city marketing, and the improvement of local offerings.

Any questions?

You can find further information and answers to frequently asked questions at www.tuebingen.de/uebernachtungssteuer